

Training sessions organised within the project AsviLoc Plus

In the framework of the project AsviLoc Plus, financed under South-East Europe Program took place, in October 2010, two training sessions for the personnel of regional development agencies involved in the project.

Between 13th-15th of October 2010, in Rovigo (Italy) it has been organized the first training seminar dedicated to the improvement of competences and skills in the field of international project management, implementation of regional programs, rural development and agriculture, renewable energies and energy efficiency, support to SMEs on innovation and innovation in governance.

The second seminar was organized in Vienna, during 18th-19th of October 2010 and included presentations of experts from Austrian innovation system about financing programs dedicated on innovation of Lower Austria Region or existing clusters and a visit at Technological Park from Wr. Neustadt.